"Twenty years ago, the United States was very proud to have been one of the first countries to recognize the independence of the Republic of Moldova. Today, we are equally as proud to have the opportunity to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the establishment of our diplomatic relationship. For the last 20 years, our two countries have worked very hard to build a strong and constructive partnership. From the outset, the U.S. has worked to support Moldova's democratic and economic development in addition to its sovereignty, and territorial integrity. The U.S. remains a steadfast friend and partner of Moldova and the Moldovan people."

U.S. Ambassador to Moldova William H. Moser, March 2012

NOTE

A separatist regime controls a narrow strip of land in eastern Moldova along the Ukrainian border known as Transnistria ("Pridnestrovie"). Individuals considering doing business in Transnistria should exercise extreme caution. Many Transnistrian firms are not legally registered with Moldovan authorities, which may complicate or prevent the import or export of goods. An increasing number of Internet fraud schemes have also originated in Transnistria recently.

The Government of Moldova has indicated that it will not recognize the validity of contracts for the privatization of firms in Transnistria that are

Official Advocacy

- The Advocacy Center helps to ensure that sales of U.S. products and services have the best possible chance competing abroad. Advocacy assistance is wide and varied but often involves companies that want the U.S. Government to communicate a message to foreign governments or government-owned corporations on behalf of their commercial interest.

Advocacy Center Services

- Advocacy through various media.
- Provides strategic advice.
- Find appropriate U.S. Government financial support.

Official Advocacy Process

1. Submit Advocacy Request to Department of Commerce.
2. Due Diligence Review (with U.S. Embassy).
3. National Interest Determination.
4. Advocacy Center will lead the campaign among U.S. agencies.
