Gustar Music Festival

August 23–24

Gustar is an ethnic music, arts, and traditional food festival. It occurs over two days in August in the open air at the nature amphitheater near Orhei Vechi (Old Orhei). Gustar invites the citizens of Moldova and foreign tourists to a multicultural festival to taste the yield of this land and experience international ethno music creation.

People call it Gustar, an archaic word that symbolizes the month when most of the fruits, including grapes, are ripe and tasted.

Independence Day August 27

On Independence Day events are organized throughout Moldova, with the largest and most important in Chisinau, where the day is celebrated with an open air festival. The national military orchestra gives a concert, and many cultural activities (e.g. folk music and dancing) take place. Dozens of local restaurants and cafes offer traditional foods: grilled meats, placinta, other national dishes, fruits, and desserts. The day also has plenty of local color, with traditional music and dance and people dressed in national costumes. Many vendors sell Moldovan handicrafts. In the evening, there is concert performance by some of the best Moldovan artists. The celebration ends with a fireworks display.
