Event Description

The Chisinau Regional Security Office will launch the OSAC Moldova Country Council at 11:00am - 12:00pm on Tuesday, September 19. The event will take place at the U.S. Embassy in Chisinau. The meeting will open with attendee introductions, followed by a security briefing from RSO Moldova, Adam Lason. Our guest speaker, OSAC Europe Program Officer, Joseph Benyam, will then discuss the growth of the OSAC Country Council program in Europe. We will wrap up with a discussion of crisis response best practices and the various analytic resources available to OSAC Moldova members.

To attend this event, participants must register using the link below.

https://www.research.net/r/chisinauregistration

Join the Chisinau Country Council

1. Do you have an account with www.OSAC.gov? (If yes, proceed to step 3)

2. Go to www.OSAC.gov and select "How to Join". Then select to "Apply as a Newsletter Subscriber"

3. Log-In to www.OSAC.gov with your username and password, then select the "Country Councils" tab

4. Select your city of operation from the list of Country Councils. For example, if you are based in Chisinau, select Chisinau (do not select more than one city).

5. You will be directed to a page that indicates insufficient access. Click Apply to request membership.

Meeting Location

*Details regarding the meeting venue will be shared with registered attendees